JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of one hundred thirty (130) months: forty-six (46) months as to Counts 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8, to run concurrently and eighty-four (84) months as to Count 3, to run consecutively.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $800, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $220,052, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3663A.

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $220,052 to victims as set forth in the separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to the restitution.

The Court orders restitution suspended until after defendant is released from custody. After release from custody, monthly installments of $100.00, shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the full amount ordered;

Pursuant to 18 USC 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution is waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 USC § 3612(g);

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05;

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment;

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report, and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide any information excluding the Presentence Report, to State or local social services agencies such as the State of California, Department of Social Services, for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation;

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three (3) years. This term consists of three (3) years as to Counts 1-8, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer;

5. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
6. When not employed at least part-time and/or enrolled in an educational or vocational program, the defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Officer;
7. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer;

USA vs. Jerome Powell WilliamsDocket No.: CR 05-00108-GAF

8. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The Court recommends that the defendant be designated in a Bureau of Prison facility somewhere on the East Coast and wherein the defendant may participate in a 500-hour drug treatment program.
